Quick Set up Guide - User

To enter the user menu enter the user code: 1 2 3 4 (default code) ‘[600] CALL TELEPHONE NUMBER’ will be displayed indicating that the user menu has been entered.

- Enter [800]: Play/Record Alarm Voice Messages
  You can add a voice message for each input you are using.

- Enter [820]: Play/Record Common Message
  The common message you would like to be played with each message.

- Enter [830]: Write SMS Alarm Messages

- Enter [900]: Program The Telephone Numbers

- Enter [930]: Message Type and Select

- Enter [999]: Exit the User Menu
Quick Set up Guide - Engineer

To enter the engineer menu enter the engineer code: 9 9 9 9 (default code) ‘[100] PLAY/REC VOICE SYSTEMS MESSAGES’ will be displayed indicating that the engineer menu has been entered.

- Enter [200]: Telephone Number Input Allocation
  This option will allocate the inputs to phone numbers that were programmed in the user menu function [900].

- Enter [350]: Auto Learn Input Status 1-6
  The V2 GSM will learn automatically the status of the PGMs.

- Enter [580]: Enable Abort Input #6
  This option enables the ability to abort a call (useful for false alarms)

- Enter [581]: Enable Status Input #5
  This option enables the ability to obtain the control panel status

- Enter [608]: Sim Telephone Number
  This adds the phone number of the SIM card that is used and will automatically set the time according to the GSM network.

- Enter [612]: Forward Low Credit SMS
  This is when the SIM card network sends a warning call of low credit to the chosen telephone number (1-9).

- Enter [999]: Exit the Engineer menu

RINS1379-3